A PICTORIAL JOURNEY

SUPPORTIVE MESSAGE FROM AIR FORCE

AIR CHIEF MARSHAL NAK BROWNE
PVSM AVSM VM ADC

IAF's ongoing transformation phase draws its sustenance from the calibre, commitment and the single-minded focus of our proud men and women who excel in their daily mission. Operating in some of the most challenging and diverse operational environments of the world, they resolutely strive to uphold all the noble values and ideals that truly symbolise the 'air warrior spirit'. Standing at the threshold of a new beginning and looking back proudly at decades of our glorious past, we salute the pioneering spirit and resolute service of our predecessors. It is indeed this pride in our rich legacy which strengthens our resolve to brave the transformational challenges.

The coffee-table book "Transformation of the IAF" truly encapsulates the rich history of the IAF in all its glory. Its thoughtfully organised sections highlight the long and arduous, but a rather rewarding journey, not only of our aviation assets but also showcases our deep involvement in undertaking various important nation building tasks. A picture, they say, is worth a thousand words. The meticulous selection of pictures which adorn the pages of this coffee-table book truly substantiates this thought. I am sure that this pictorial tribute will be cherished by all Air Warriors, past and present. My sincere compliments to SP Guide Publications and the entire editorial team for their commendable efforts in bringing out such a remarkable publication.
